ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

University BDT College of Engineering (UBDTCE), Davangere, is located in the central part of Karnataka State, India. Started in the year 1951, it was the only Government Engineering College in the state of Karnataka for more than half a century. The College was named after the donors Bramhappa Devendrappa Tavanappanavar (BDT), who donated the land and 1.5 lakh rupees for the construction of buildings.

The College continued as the only Government Engineering College (GBDTCE) affiliated to University of Mysore, until it was transferred to Kuvempu University in June 1992, as a Constituent Engineering College. Later on, with the establishment of Davangere University, UBDTCE became its Constituent Engineering College in August 2009. Subsequently, the College was transferred to Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU), Belagavi, in February 2011 as its first Constituent Engineering College.

The college is approved by AICTE, New Delhi. At present institute offers 7 UG and 9 PG programmes including MBA and MCA. All the Departments in the Institute have been recognized as Research Centres of VTU and offer Ph.D. and M.Sc. (Engg) programmes. More than 70 Research Scholars have received Ph.D. degree during last five years and 114 research scholars are pursuing their doctoral degree in various frontiers of Engineering and Technology. The institute has highly qualified, experienced and dedicated faculty members & supporting staff members to impart quality education in Engineering and Technology to students. Most of the faculty have acquired their Master's and Doctoral degrees from reputed institutions like IISc, IITs, NITs and there are 55 faculty members with Doctoral degrees.

The Institute has undergone the NBA accreditation process twice and able to meet the standards of quality education.
